VOLUME XVII

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY APRIL 15, 1914.

Death of an Estimable Young Woman.

The intelligence of the death of Miss Ellen Epperson, a highly respected young woman of Adair county, reached relatives at this place early Monday morning, she having died at Phil, Casey county, a few hours before the word came. She was thirty-five years old and was a victim of typhoid fever and acute indigestion. She was a daughter of W. F. Epperson, who died many years ago. Her mother and several brothers and several sisters survive her.

The deceased was a devoted member of the Christian Church, popular in the neighborhood where she was reared, and had made many friends at Phil, Ky., where she had been a very efficient saleslady in Carson & Combett store for a period of four years.

The remains were brought to Adair county, and after funeral services, conducted by Eld. Z. T. Williams, the body was interred in the family burying ground, near Montpellier.

In testimony of the high character of the deceased, a very large circle of relatives and friends attended the last sad rites.

The News is in sympathy with all sorrowing relatives.

Resigns Pastorate

Rev. J. P. Scruggs has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist Church, the same to take effect Sunday May 3rd. He has accepted a call to the Baptist church in Fredericktown, Mo.

Rev. Scruggs began his work with the Midway Baptist church on the first Sunday in May, 1906. He will, therefore, have rounded out eight years of work on the Sunday he preaches his farewell sermon. The work he has done here has been of a high order, and the church has prospered in many ways under his care. The membership is exceedingly loath to give him up. Of himself and his work we shall have more to say later.—Midway Clipper.

Business Meeting at the Baptist Church.

There is important business to be attended to at our regular meeting next Wednesday night, April 15th. The entire membership is urged to be present.

O. P. Bush, Pastor.

Mrs. Sallie Wilkinson, of near Glenville, this county, exhibited, at this office, last Friday, a large checked flax linen handkerchief, which was made by her grand mother one hundred years ago. It has been well preserved, and the work shows that the maker was a skilled weaver. It is perhaps the oldest piece of linen or any other kind of cloth in Adair county. It was made in North Carolina and brought to this county eighty years ago.

Bishop G. M. Matthews, of Dayton, Ohio, will be at Columbia about May the 17th to look after the interest of the United Brethren church, and will remain here for a few days. Watch the News for the exact date.

A. W. Whitten.

Mr. J. B. Barbee and family will arrive from Louisville this week and will remove into their home on Greensburg street. Mr. C. M. Herriford, who is now occupying the residence, will remove to Mrs. Johnson's property, nearly opposite the home of Mr. G. F. Stults.

Fire alarm was sounded from J. W. Morrison's residence, near the roller mill, last Wednesday. About a regiment of men, with buckets, started to the scene, to learn before reaching it, that it was only the burning out of a flue.

Nice, new three room cottage for rent. Dr. W. F. Cartwright.

Mr. Ed Franklin and Mr. Creed Hood, ex-Confederate soldiers, have been granted pensions.

Both, to the wife of Robert Murphy, April 7, a daughter; weight, 94 pounds.

Laws Governing Subscriptions.

Most readers of newspapers and many publishers are not familiar with the laws governing subscriptions. Here are the decisions of the United States Court on the subject. They will be interesting to publishers and many will undoubtedly be glad of the opportunity to print them for the benefit of delinquent subscribers.

"Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions."

"If the subscribers order a discontinuance of their publication the publisher may continue to send them until all dues are paid."

"If the subscriber refuses to take periodicals from the Post Office to which they are directed, he is responsible until he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued."

"If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, the subscriber is held responsible."

"The courts have held that refusing to take periodicals from the Post Office or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud."

"If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the subscriber is responsible until express notice with payment of all arrearage is sent to the publisher."

NOTICE.

We wish to inform the people of Adair county that we are representing the Pomona Nursery, at Bowling Green. This Nursery has been in business 25 years and has 300 acres in select nursery stock, putting out a first-class line of trees. Aid From Government.

For replenishing of Kentucky streams and fields the State will get this year 14,000,000 fish 100 pairs of Hungarian partridges. 24 Deer have already been placed in reserves in the mountain district.

The Government will even up matters this year, and Kentucky will get her share.

The Fish and Game Commission are unable to find a State in the Union that will let go of any "Bob Whites". Anyone wishing feed for your quails can get seed from Fish and Game Commission, Frankfort, Ky. Its of no harm to the land and furnishes food and cover.

The Legislature did not take from, nor add too in any way any laws pertaining to fish and game. But after 70 days of toil they made it unlawful for Lodging Houses to furnish sheets less than ninety-nine inches and two to a bed.

T. I. Smith.

Won Second Prize.

Mr. James Holladay, who lives a few miles from Columbia, represented Georgetown College in an oratorical contest at Winchester last week. There were a number of entries, Mr. Holladay winning second prize. It was an honor his relatives and friends highly appreciate. "Jim," as he is familiarly called, is full of vim, ambitious, and is certain to make his mark in the world. His speech will be published next week.

We learn from Rev. A. Whitten that work on the United Brethren church will commence in a very short time. The foundation was put down last fall. The church will not be large, but a very attractive edifice.

I have for sale at T. F. Collin's barn fertilizer, 10-0-2 and 16 acid, at $1.00 per hundred, cash.

To Trustees.

If any trustees have not received the census blanks for this month, they will please notify me at once. I have plenty to furnish.

Tobias Huffaker, Supt.

Why do you wear your shoes so long without repair? Don't you know it is cheaper to repair them than to buy new ones? You can get them repaired at T. G. Rasner & Son. They have gone to the expense of fixing up a first class shop. Trying to put in good machinery as far as they are able, if you want to help this business grow don't forget to shove them your work. They will try to treat you with courtesy and with the lowest price possible. Don't forget to help them in all kinds of work.

Mr. C. M. Herriford, representing E. R. Spottswood & Son, Lexington, bought, last week, a boundary of timber from Mr. Wm. Conover, near White Oak, for $3-800. The timber will be cut and worked on the boundary.

Base Ball.

The base ball season was opened here last Friday afternoon, the Middleburg team being here to engage the Lindsey-Wilson club. The weather was rather cool for playing, but the games were called just the same. The first meet was Friday at 3 p. m., Middleburg at the bat, but the boys made but little progress throughout the contest, and the game closed 14 to 3 in favor of the Lindsey-Wilson.

The features of the game were the timely hitting of "Chief Myers" Lewis and consistent hitting of English and Squires.

Batteries—Lewis and Sullivan for Lindsey; I. Wesley, Sandidge, Jones, Compton and Weddle, for Middleburg. Struck out by Sullivan 15—by Jones, Compton and Weddle 6. Umpire Reed.

The second game, on Saturday afternoon, was like the first, only a little more so, and it closed 10 to 0.

The features of the game were the sensational pitching by Young, and the hard hitting by the home boys. "Dago" Lewis kept up his sacrifice hitting throughout the game.

Batteries—Lewis and Young for Lindsey; Sandidge, I. Wesley, Weddle and Compton for Middleburg. Struck out by Young 11. By Weddle 6. By Compton 2.

Hits off Young 2. Hits off Compton and Weddle 11. Umpire—Reed. The visiting club will make ready for another meet some time during the season.

Easter Hunt

Last Sunday afternoon immediately after Sunday School at Tabernacle the crowd marched to a grove near the church yard where they spent a very enjoyable evening, there being something near two hundred eggs hidden in the grove. Mrs. Minnie Harmon found the "Golden Egg." The first prize was a nice box of chocolate cand. That this Easter hunt will be long by remembered by all who were present, and we hope to spend many more easters at old Tabernacle.

Eld. H. Clay Smith, of Louisville, representing the Anti-Saloon League, delivered two strong addresses in Columbia last Sunday. The first was in the forenoon and at the Christian Church, special music being furnished. The evening address was delivered at the Methodist Church. Upon each occasion the houses were crowded, the speaker receiving the closest attention. He stated that the cause he represented was in dead earnest, and that in a very few years the saloon would be wiped from the State of Kentucky and also from the nation. Quite a sum of money was given to the cause.

Introductory.

I trust that it is with a proper appearance of love and humility that I take my pen in hand to write you a few verses, hoping they may find you without blood in your eye, or a false manifestation of brotherly love in your heart, and should the following poetic effusion fail to compare favorably with Poe's Raven, please do not attribute it to the absence of that old left over, or some strong domestic wine, unlike the wedding wine of Gallilee, which some now presume was sweet cider wine—not good wine, as the Ruler of the feast pronounced it to be, but an expert presumer can presume a great deal when his case so requires. We'd as well suppose that a fit of inebriation prompted Poe to write thus:

"I do not like thee Dr. Fell,
The reason why I cannot tell,
But I do not like thee Doctor Fell."
Yet poets are born, not made, (I was born.) when quite young, I presume, (Like the wonderful man of whom we've been told,
That once was an infant, but age made him old.)

Although poets like Burns, Pope and myself may be born, yet I would say to Bro. Dalton, that a poet, and perchance a preacher, may sometimes feel the need of some artificial inspiration, lest he be like a prophet (not without honor, save in his own country and in his own house.) We also wish to congratulate Bro. Dalton upon the manly manner in which he commented upon "The Old Doctor's little article in The News." But why should your bard keep the gentle reader longer?

WAITING.

That Father Adam we believe
Waited on good mother Eve,
The serpent waiting to deceive
Caused a waiting world to grieve.
And still this waiting world wags on
With its weary, waiting throng,
Harking to the siren song
Of brighter days e're long.

While some who wait on Pishgal's height
With fair Canaan just in sight,
Lingering, fear to take their flight,
Not knowing where they may alight.

Poor mortals, all both grave and gay,
Await some glorious happy day,
Though few pursue the narrow way,
For all, like sheep, have gone astray.

Blooming youth awaits the time
When they arrive at manhood's prime
With gilded castles all sublime,
Of visions worldly or divine.

Yet time and tide refuse to wait
For pauper, priest or potentate,
And all our boasted woe or great
Await one sure decree of fate.

An aged man did thus reply:
I'm waiting, and I'll tell you why.
I'm old, he added with a sigh,
And only waiting now to die.

And waiting on the silent shore
Are those, who having crossed before,
In waiting now are millions more
To board the bark that rowed them o'er.

Field day at Lindsey-Wilson Campus Friday, May 8. An interesting program will be pulled off.

Baptist Social.

The meeting of the members of the Baptist Church, in the Parlor Circle Hall last Wednesday evening, had but one object in view—to become better acquainted and to spend a few hours in social enjoyment. A large number gathered and the evening was very much enjoyed by all present.

There were music, instrumental and vocal, recitations, etc. Refreshments were served, and to say that every body was sorry when the breaking up hour arrived, is not making too strong a statement. Church socials, in our judgment, redound to good, and the oftener members of a religious body come together, the broader will be the work, as the exchange of ideas opens up larger duties to be accomplished.

Last Sunday afternoon Miss Stella Antle gave an Easter Egg Hunt, thirty-seven young people being present. Two prizes were awarded, the first—a box of candy, being given for the prettiest colored egg, was won by Miss Mattie Keltner; the second, also a box of candy, was received by Miss Ira Coffey and Mr. Wyatt Smith for finding the largest number of eggs. The souvenirs of the occasion were miniature hand-painted lilies.

Work of the Fiscal Court.

The Fiscal Court of Adair County was in session five days of last week and transacted a great deal of business. The present court is composed of magistrates six of whom were never on the bench, one, W. E. Hancock, served a term once before. They are all men of good judgment, and in our opinion will carefully watch the interest of the county. Some of them have had experience in road building and we believe during their term of office an order will be made looking to the bettering of the highways of the county.

The winding of the city clock was awarded to Mr. Murray Ball. The other bidder was Mr. J. G. Eubank. The bids of the two gentlemen were opened twice. The first time it was a tie, $24.00 per year by each. The second time Mr. Ball's bid was $23.29 and Mr. Eubank's $23.50, giving the job to Mr. Ball.

Mrs. Ermine Leech was elected poor-house keeper last Friday. Her opponent was Mr. J. H. Jones and the vote stood 3 to 4. This election was to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. L. P. Fletcher, who resigned the first of court.

The levy made for general purposes, 35 cents on the one hundred dollars, one dollar poll, 15 cents on each one hundred dollars and 50 cents poll for school purposes.

Drs. Hindman & Russell were elected poor-house physicians.

Claims allowed, about $5,000.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas: The Great and Supreme Ruler of the Universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from among us our beloved sister, Lucy Trabue, and, Whereas: the long and intimate relations held with her in the discharge of her duties in this school makes it eminently befitting that we should record our appreciation of her, therefore:

Resolved: That the sudden removal of such a life from among us leaves a vacancy that will be deeply realized by the members and friends of the school, and will prove a loss to the community.

Resolved: That her devotion, counsel, and faithfulness will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved: That with deep sympathy with the bereaved sisters and relatives of the dead, we express our hope that this loss may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our school; a copy furnished the Adair County News and a copy furnished to the bereaved sisters.

Splendid Recital.

Last Friday night, at Lindsey Wilson chapel, Miss Mary Chandler gave her graduation recital in Expression to a large and appreciative audience. Her program was composed of selections of every style, each of which she rendered in a faultless manner. Miss Chandler possesses remarkable talent and to this has been added careful training and a charming personality, making her appearances upon the stage always a delight to her hearers.

She was assisted by Miss Nellie Huffaker, who entertained the audience with two piano solos.

Both young ladies have been much and justly praised for their splendid entertainment.

The Grinstead Poultry Company, of this place paid out, last week, $4,553 for chickens, eggs, etc. Adding to this the houses in adjoining counties paid out sums, the total summing $25,000. The largest check paid to one man by the house here was $1,400.44. Three men were paid $3,200.

On account of the school entertainment at the Court-house, Thursday night, the Parlor Circle will not be open. The shows this week will be Friday night and Saturday night.

Mr. Clint Smith bought the stock of groceries which were owned by R. L. Robinson. Mr. Smith will conduct a grocery store and restaurant at the same stand.

Remarks: Never in the history of Kentucky has there been a better array of Spiritual talent than this program affords. Every man on it has agreed to come. A number of pastors from over the State have signified that they will come just to reap the benefit of such a meeting. Men pay their way across the continent to Conventions that do not afford anything better.

The music will be led by Rev. E. W. Coakley, of Nicholasville, Ky.

We invite all of our brethren and sisters in Russell Creek Association and adjacent associations to come with us. You cannot afford to miss.

If you are coming to remain over night do not fail to write us a card. It is said that country people will not attend things in town. Let's show them such is not true. Bro. Duke and some of the pastors of Russell Creek Association will spend from April 24th till May 6th going from church to church.

Last, but not least, we are to have a home-coming at Campbellsville May 9th and 10th with Bro. Duke to address us, and his co-laborer in the great work in Texas, that prince of laymen, M. H. Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe is a cotton exporter, and deals with men all over the world. These two men love the Lord and his kingdom enough to come to tell what great things God has done for them. It looks like we ought to at least think enough about it to give time to hearing them.

Campbellsville Church invites you here brethren. Lunch on the ground each day, and free entertainment while here. If you are interested in the uplift of your Association, your church and the edification of your own heart and the salvation of your children and your neighbor's children, we invite you to come and show it by your presence. Let's make this surpass in crowds any political gathering ever had in Taylor county.

Twenty Years Ago.

Port Elgin, Ontario, 3, 27, '14.

Editor News:—To-night finds me at Port Elgin, Ontario, Canada, a small city on the shores of Lake Huron, some 200 miles northwest of Buffalo, New York.

Wandering back in memory over the gulf of years, I find it will be twenty years ago tomorrow since I entered the Pension Bureau in Washington, and during these long years I have been headquartered at various places, and traveled thousands of miles in the discharge of my official duties.

The mission of a special examiner, is to seek the facts in each claim sent him by the commissioner, who sets forth on a reference slip the points at issue, and on which further evidence is wanted. For example, I will detail some of the points involved in a claim I investigated this week.

A soldier served in a new York regiment, and was a pensioner when he died in Canada, a few years ago. His widow filed claim, alleging and proving her marriage to him in Toronto, in 1872, and also stated that neither she nor soldier, had been previously married, and she furnished the affidavit of a brother of the soldier showing non-prior marriage, and upon this showing her claim was allowed, and things went smoothly for five years.

But alas! One day the bureau received the application of a woman in Trenton, New Jersey, alleging that she was the lawful widow of said soldier, and gave his service and date of her marriage to him in 1868, in Philadelphia, and stated that they had separated in 1870, when he went to Canada, and after passing a few letters they lost sight of each other. But she had learned of his death, and gave the exact date which had been alleged in claim of the pensioner.

A special examination was ordered to determine which, if either, of said women, should be recognized as the lawful widow of soldier. The claim first went into the hands of the examiners in New York City, who saw and took testimony in the contesting claim, and made out a strange case in her favor and she furnished a picture of the soldier, which came to my hands with the papers for the purpose of seeing the pensioner and brother of the soldier residing in Toronto, Canada.

I called upon the pensioner and the brother of the deceased soldier, and first, presented the picture for identification, and each replied promptly that it was the picture of the late husband of pensioner.

I then took the sworn statement of each, separate and apart, and the brother of soldier who had made an affidavit of the non-prior marriage of soldier, frankly stated that he knew of the first marriage in 1868, and of the separation, but could not explain his affidavit in which he had stated the non-prior marriage.

The pensioner disclaimed any knowledge of a former marriage, and appeared greatly distressed. However, she had no testimony to offer in rebuttal of the contentions of wife number one. This is only one among many such cases.

My district is composed of Western New York, and northwestern Pennsylvania, and the Province of Ontario, Canada is a great country. I have been favorably impressed with her people—and is well and substantially built, and would compare favorably with any city.

NOBLE PEACOCK

One of the best sons of the Grand Old Sire, Jordan Peacock, will make the season of 1914 at Gradyville, Ky., and will insure a colt for the Low Price of $10.00.

NOBLE PEACOCK has proven himself to be the Best Breeder in Southern Kentucky. His get last year wore the blue tie over every other horse colt that was shown at the Columbia Fair, as those who were there and saw that beautiful little Chestnut Missie that I paraded in front of the Grand Stand that made the other colts take a back seat and sit down till the little Missie graduated is evidence that NOBLE is the Best Breeder, and there were a number of colts by some of the noted horses of the country. Some of them were sired by stallions that made the season at $25, and there were two in the lot that the season cost $50. Now what is the use to pay from $25 to $50 for a colt when you can get a better one for $10?

My plan is to live and let live. Just think of the wonderful Peacock mare that was shown at the Columbia Fair last year by Wilson Bros., and won every time she entered the ring. She won the $500 prize for the best stallion, mare or gelding. Also $50 for the most beautiful stallion, mare or gelding, and for the best saddle mare, 4 years old and over, and she's a Peacock, too.

The stock that you have heard some stallion owners say couldn't do nothing, but when they come to a show-down they are always in the money and especially when you have one to sell.

Description of NOBLE PEACOCK:—He is 6 years old, 15½ hands high—weighs 1,050 pounds, is a beautiful Mahogany Bay, goes all five of the saddle gaits with both ends up as high as you ever saw a Peacock. He carries the best natural show tail I ever saw. Has a long goose neck and a beautiful head and a large, brown eye and is strictly sound in every way.

NOBLE'S breeding, by Jourdan Peacock, No. 1148, by Peacock 498, by Blue Jeans No. 3. Jourdan's dam, Lena Rivers, No. 760, by Cabbell's Lexington, by Gist Black Hawk, by Blood's Black Hawk.

Noble's first dam, by Artist Jewel, No. 882, by 2nd Jewel, 84, by Jewel Denmark 70, by Washington's Denmark, 64. Noble's 2nd dam by Cromwell Denmark, No. 73, 3rd dam by Artist No. 75.

There is not a better bred stallion living than Noble Peacock, and not one in the world that has as much rich blood in him as Noble, that stands at as low a price as this fine young horse.

3 JACKS.

I will stand 3 first-class Jacks at $10.00 to insure a mare with foal. These are all first-class Jacks, all black with size and style.

Now if you want to breed to the best, come to my stables. I have been in the breeding business 35 years and know how to handle this kind of stock.

Money is always due when mares are traded or removed from the neighborhood. Pasture 10c per day or fed at cost of feed.

Respectfully,

W. L. GRADY.

Obituary.

On the night of April the 1st, 1914, at the midnight hour, the death angel came to the home of Mrs. Montra Rosenbaum, and claimed for its own their only daughter, Ella.

She had been an invalid from early childhood, but about ten or eleven days before her death, she was stricken with pneumonia, and her dear little frail body was not strong enough to endure the ravages of that dread disease, and God relieved her of her suffering by taking her to him to dwell in that beautiful land where her dear father, whom she loved so well, was waiting to welcome her. But O! how mother, brother and the one who has been as a kind and loving sister to her for so many years, will miss her! Always when they came in from some household duty, or when brother came in from work, dear little Ella was patiently waiting, and how they loved to smooth her hair, rearrange her pillows, or do something to make Ella more comfortable.

But to the ones who loved her so, we will say; look to the One Who soothes all aching hearts, and he will help you to bear this grief. Ella has gone to that better land where sickness and sorrow nor death ever come, and we'll never again say good-bye.

Ella Rosenbaum was born November 23, 1878, making her thirty-five years four months and eight days old when she peacefully closed her eyes in that slumber from which to awaken on the other shore.

She was laid to rest Thursday afternoon in the Helm cemetery by the side of her father who preceded her seven years ago.

Tears, tears, bitter tears may fall,

Death may our hearts appall,
Yet 'tis the door to realms of endless rest,
Where kindred spirits blest,
wait ever more.

Death, death seems a cruel foe,
Filling the world with woe.
Dark is the tomb, but kindred dust shall rise:

Light from the parting skies breaking the gloom.

Trust, trust to the Savior's love,
Soon we shall meet above, do not despair,

Our loved ones surely wait,

Close by the Pearly Gate,

Wait for us there.

Look to Your Plumbing

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by Paull Drug Co. Ad.

A Historical Church.

There is an old brick church, located about nine miles from Greensburg and known as the Mt. Gilead Christian church, which keeps all of its old-fashioned simplicity, and visitors who come in and out can't keep their minds from wandering back into the past and thinking of the struggle of its early days, for it lived through "wartimes."

There are only a few left who can tell you of these times, but they enjoy talking of the days when the very "best" of the adjoining counties attended services at this place driving or riding miles to do so. There are none of the old members left and the congregation is very small. The church is very much in need of repair. The young people of the community are endeavoring to repair and keep it just as it was in the old days and if possible, to employ a pastor, who will revive the church as well. They are beginning a series of entertainments, the first to be given at Mt. Gilead, Saturday night April the 11th. This is a comedy of four acts composed of eight characters and entitled "Old Maids Triumph." Admission 25c. A large crowd is expected to come and join in a good cause and to enjoy an evening of pleasure. Any one who wishes to contribute to the cause or who is interested in the Church can write Miss Hallie Cundiff and she will thank you and be glad to explain what this society is trying to do.

Stright at It.

There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as we can see why you should not do so. This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by Paull Drug Co. Ad.

Boy Character.

It is the greatest delusion in the world for a boy to get the idea that his life is of no consequence and that the character of it will not be noticed. A manly, truthful boy will shine like a star in any community. A boy may possess as much of noble character as a man. He may so speak and so live the truth that there will be no discount on his word, and there are such noble, Christian boys, and wider and deeper than they apt to think is their influence. They are the king boys among their fellows, having an immense influence for good, and beloved and respected because of the simple fact of living the truth. Now, dear boys, do be truthful, keep your word as absolutely sacred and ever be remindful of the scripture's teachings, such as: "thou shalt not lie," "neither shalt thou swear falsely against thy neighbor."

Keep your appointments at the house of God.

Be known for your fidelity to the interests of the church and Sunday School. Be true to every friendship. Help others to be and do good.

Respectfully,

Willie Wheat.

Cough Medicine for Children

Too much care cannot be used in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful substance and be most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these requirements and is a favorite with the mothers of young children everywhere. For sale by Paull Drug Co. Ad.

Health in Extreme Cold.

Sir Ernest Shackleton affirms that during all the months spent in the extreme cold of the antarctic not one of his company suffered from a cold. No sooner, however, did their vessel reach a warmer latitude than every man on board was smitten with catarrh. And "cold snaps" are even more costly in England than in the United States. To builders, plasterers and many carpenters and joiners frost or snow means temporary unemployment. Shipbuilding, too, cannot be carried on at low temperatures, and when the mercury drops to freezing point all the yards are idle. All waterside laborers suffer by severe cold, and fishermen about the coasts affirm that frost drives the fish into deep water. It has been calculated, indeed, that a day's continued frost or snow in that country means a million men idle and a loss of wages which affects the whole trading and laboring community.

J. A. Wise Resign.

United States Deputy Marshal J. A. Wise will vacate his position on the last day of March, and will be succeeded by Sam H. Byars, of Elkton, who will assume his duties on April 1.

Deputy Wise was appointed Deputy Marshal under the Taft administration four years, and since that time has placed under arrest scores moonshiners, bootleggers and other violators of the government laws. He has been in some close places and his experiences have been harrowing. He has proven himself one of the most fearless officers ever working in this section of the country.

Wise was re-appointed temporarily to the position the first of the year, but recently received notification of the appointment of a successor.

Mr. Wise has not decided as yet as to what line of work he will engage in, but states that in all probability he will remain in Bowling Green.—Edmonton News.

The Regional Bank.

It is difficult to believe the forecast from Washington concerning the location of the Regional Banks, and more difficult to accept the territorial divisions as outlined.

Difficult to believe because these forecasts indicate too great a deference to personal demands and far too little to existing business relations and activities.

It appears that the interior cities are treated as mere pawns on the financial chessboard. In order to serve Richmond or Atlanta, the interior basin from the Alleghenies to the Mississippi, from the Ohio to the Gulf, is denied such a bank, and this compact and inter-related section is to be dismembered, cut up assigned arbitrarily and most remorselessly to other districts in order to establish a mathematical equilibrium to justify the selection of another coast city.

Louisville has no relation of the slightest consequence with Cleveland. As to St. Louis, it is both unwise and unjust to tack Louisville onto that city. Chicago is the natural center for Louisville if the proposition to decentralize capital and credit is to be abandoned, as appears to be the case from today's forecast.

The undetermined question today is whether Senator Hoke Smith, or the Controller of the Currency, Mr. Skeleton Williams, is to be recognized by the selection of their "home town." On no other supposition, geographical, financial, commercial, or industrial, would it be considered possible to add Richmond to the list of favored coast cities, or put aside New Orleans, Memphis and Louisville as an interior capital, to make way for Atlanta.

The objection to the whole scheme as outlined is that it is unnecessarily disturbing, revolutionary, if you please. The bill as it stands, under the best interpretation, contains enough new devices, experiments of doubtful effect, and arbitrary requirements, necessarily costly; in its application it should permit commerce to follow the lines of least resistance, instead of forcing it into new and unnatural channel. —Louisville Post.

WED. APRIL 15, 1914

In another column will be found the program of the Bible Institute to be held at the Baptist Church, Campbellsville, April 18 to 23rd. The many subjects covering every point of Christian work will be discussed by some of the ablest and most consecrated men in the entire country. The subjects, the speakers and the big-hearted invitation overflowing with brotherly love will undoubtedly prove a great blessing to every one who will attend. Such rare treats of Christian fellowship and spiritual uplift, come to but few sections. If you fail to read the program, you will doubtless fail to grasp the real importance of the meeting and its real worth to this associational district, that needs so much to be stirred up to do its duty, and to wield the power and the prestige its resources and opportunities afford. As individuals, we all need a real awakening, a stirring that will produce living, lasting results. As a congregation of churches, the Russell Creek Association needs to be shaken from center to circumference. It has responsibilities it fails to see and opportunities to accomplish so much that it will be lamentable should this meeting fail to awaken the interest plainly discernable in the range of subjects and speakers announced. Beside the spiritual uplift, apart from receiving a broader, clearer vision of life, living and duty, a meeting of the brethren, the social part, will more than repay the worry of the trip. Not only is this gathering a harvest for Baptists, but it will prove a blessing to every one who attends and has at heart the good of humanity and the spiritual uplift of himself. Read the program and make your arrangements to attend.

The April term of the Fiscal Court was held last week but so far as we know nothing out of the ordinary was enacted. A large part of the time was given to the hearing and allowance of claims—the pauper list being the burden of the county. The Court made its levy as follows: 35c for general purposes and 15c for schools thus holding the levy to 50c. The levy of 35c was necessary to meet current expenses and to pay off the indebtedness of the county which amounts to $2000.00 or more. No road levy was made, the county having sufficient money to meet its obligations and expenses on the roads for this year. A survey of the various members of the Court is bound to convince any man familiar with former bodies that our county did not suffer in the last election in securing competent men. To be plain and not to do an injustice to the ability of former Courts, we believe Adair County now has the strongest Court it has had for twenty years and that it will prove the beginning of better public conditions. There is ample evidence that our magistrates will handle the situation both from an economic and progressive stand point. Indebtedness and the growth of pauper claims prevented the initial step from being taken in the betterment of public roads. This trouble, to some extent, will be out of the way next year and then you will see the beginning of the beginning in roads.

The vote on the toll question will not come up for several weeks. The advocates for repeal will carry their point. Those who are against the repeal should read the speech of Henry Cabot Lodge, the greatest Republican of them all.

The disturbance in Mexico goes on—fighting every few days, Gen. Villa invariably coming out on the top. There will be no peace in that country until a few of the leaders have been killed. Privates are being slain by the thousands.

Mr. John C. C. Mayo is reported better. The daily papers say that the transfusion of a pint of blood from a brother into the system of the sick man, may save his life.

Extracts from New Road Law Pertaining to State Aid

Section No. 5. The money hereby set apart in the State Treasury to the credit of the State Road fund shall be apportioned among the several counties applying for State aid in the manner hereinafter provided, and the amount so proportioned shall be based on the amount of taxes levied and collected therein for the building and construction of public roads, and including the taxes collected from year to year to pay the interest on or create a sinking fund for any bonded indebtedness, which may hereafter be created by any county to construct or reconstruct public roads, until such county shall receive from the State Road fund an amount equal to one-half of the moneys appropriated for building roads by said county whether the amount appropriated be from the sale of bonds or direct taxation. Provided that said sum shall be expended in constructing public roads under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Roads.

Section No. 6. It is further provided that any county voting bonds and expending the proceeds of same in building public roads under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Roads may, in case the amount thus expended exceeds the proportional amount, said county may be able to secure from the State Road fund, then in that event, said county shall be entitled to receive from the State Road fund in subsequent years such further amounts as will make the total amount received from said fund equal to one-half of the moneys expended by said county under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Roads. Provided, that said county shall expend said funds thus secured in constructing and reconstructing public roads. Provided, further that no one county shall receive in any one year more than two

Gone to Her Reward.

On Wednesday, March, 25th, the death Angel visited the home of M. T. Redman and claimed for its victim his mother. She was 84 years old. She left three children, 18 grand children, 66 great grand children and two great great children. Early in life she professed her faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church. Aunt Milly was good and kind and beloved by all who knew her. To the bereaved children we can say weep not as one who has no hope. She was good and kind to every body who knew her, but we can say to the children and grand children weep not for she is safely housed with Jesus and is beckoning to loved ones to join her around God's eternal throne where there will be no more parting or sad good-byes. The sacred tie is broken and she has gone to try the realities of that great beyond which sooner or later we must all enter into. It is such a sweet thought for her loved ones to know that she is at rest with Jesus, and that some day they can all join her in Heaven. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Burton and interment was in the Ben Allen grave yard near McGaha.

Written by a Neighbor.

From Missouri.

Carrollton, Mch., 31st, 1914.

Editor News:

As we have just been here a short time I will try to write a few lines. We left Adair county Mch., 18th. It was turning cold fast. We landed at Louisville at 9 o'clock and got right off for St. Louis at once, landing there at 8 o'clock next morning. Didn't stay there but a short time and started for Carrollton. It snowed and blew all day. We landed at Carrollton at 3 o'clock that evening. It was still snowing. We got a conveyance to Bogard. Friend Henry Bottoms was expecting us on the South bound on the Burlington at 5 o'clock, and being disappointed had gone home. We just missed him about five minutes, so we stayed with Mrs. Collins that night and was treated all O. K. We found Mrs. Collins and family all well, and as clever as ever. Have met with lots of friends and acquaintances, but I didn't have to come here like my old friend Melvin White said: Kentuckians come to Missouri loaded down with hardware, such as six shooters, sling shot and so on. This is my seventh trip to Missouri, one to Colorado and one to Illinois and never had anything more than a Russell Barlow. We don't have to have anything of the kind. I don't know how it is where Melvin has been but if I see right the pistol toters are mighty scarce in Adair county and I don't hear of any out here. One thing I do know there is lots of mighty clever people in Missouri and they are not all Kentuckians. Don't think I am running down Ky., for that is my home at least half of the time. We are having lots of rain. Saturday and Sunday lots of bridges and culverts washed out. It has stopped our mail for a few days. Grass is growing fine. There has been but little farming done here since January. Wishing the News and its force and all of my Adair county friends the very best of luck.

I remain yours,
J. T. Taylor.

Then the Court Wept.

It was a very pitiable case of vagrancy, and the magistrate seemed inclined to be lenient.

"Prisoner, you are charged with loitering about the town in a very suspicious manner and with not having any visible means of sustenance. What do you do for a living?"

Prisoner wiped a tear from his eye and turned a haggard face to the magistrate.

"Your worship," said he, "I am engaged in manufacturing smoked glasses for viewing eclipses—an industry that entails protracted periods of enforced leisure."

The Perfect Laxative For Elderly People

Age has its attractions no less than youth in a more serene and quieter life. But it is this very life of rest without sufficient exercise that brings with it those disorders that arise from inactivity. Chief of these are a chronic, persistent constipation. Most elderly people are troubled in this way, with accompanying symptoms of belching, drowsiness after eating, headaches and general lassitude. Frequently there is difficulty of digesting even light food. Much mental trouble ensues, as it is hard to find a suitable remedy. First of all the advice may be given that elderly people should not use salts, cathartic pills or powders, waters or any of the more violent purgatives. What they need, women as well as men, is a mild laxative tonic, one that is pleasant to take and yet acts without gripping. The remedy that fills all these requirements, and has in addition tonic properties that strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of elderly people use, to the exclusion of all other remedies. Trustworthy people like A. B. Tigrett, Oaklawn Farm, Newbern, Tenn., and Mrs. Lizzie S. Brooks, Paris, Ky., say they take it at regular intervals and in that way not only maintain general good health, but that they have not in years felt as good as they do now. You will do well to always have a bottle of it in the house. It is good for all the family. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

This celebrated Stallion will make the season of 1914 at Will Johnson's barn, 4 1/2 miles south of Columbia and 1 1/2 miles West of Gadsberry, on Pettits Fork Creek, and will serve mares at $6.00 to insure a living colt. He has proven to be a good breeder.

Joe is a dark bay, 16 hands high, heavy built, good style, has the best of eyes, feet and legs and in fact a perfect model in every respect. He is the best and quietest work horse I ever seen, and a fine driver for women with perfect safety, so he needs no further introduction.

Money due when colt is foaled. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

We will also stand a good 7 year old Jack at same place on same conditions as horse, at the low fee of $5.00.

We thank the people for their past favors and solicit their future ones. Call and see our stock if interested.

How Eggs Get Spoiled.

A very large number of eggs are spoiled by careless treatment, quite apart from the matter of temperature, and the chief cause of deterioration undoubtedly arises from the common habit of allowing the eggs to remain upon their sides. The result of this practice is that the yolk, which is heavier than the "white," presses against the shell—an unnatural state of affairs altogether. The shell is unable to resist the action of the yolk upon its tissues, air is admitted, and decomposition immediately sets in.

If eggs are to be preserved without the aid of any artificial media, such as "water-glass" or other lime solutions, they must be turned over every day or stood upon their ends. So long as the yolk is kept suspended among the "white the egg remains good for any reasonable period, whether its ultimate object be to furnish food or to produce a chick. If this fundamental principle were properly understood, the egg which tastes musty, or is obviously "good in parts," would appear far less often on our breakfast tables.

Treated thus, and kept in a cool place from first to last, new laid eggs will remain quite unimpaired for the best part of a month, and the lower the temperature of the place of storage the longer will they keep. If coated with a greasy or glutinous substance, the effect of which is to stop the pores in the shell from opening and admitting the air, eggs can be kept in a fresh state for months on end.

Found a Cure for Rheumatism

"I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for that length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Mapleton, Iowa. "I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep or lie still at night. Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since." What We Eat.

If the average man lives to be 75 years old, he will have eaten 54 tons of solid food and 53 tons of liquid—or about 1,300 times his weight.

If you were to stack the bread you will have consumed in this number of years, the pile would equal a fair-sized building. The amount of butter you will have used on this bread would come to a ton and a quarter. If you are a lover of bacon, and were to stretch that which you have eaten out in single slices four miles would be the length. Five tons of fish and 12,000 eggs would stand to your credit, while the normal cheese eater would easily have consumed 400 pounds.

The vegetables you will have eaten would fill a train three miles long. You will have consumed some 10,000 pounds of sugar and 1,500 pounds of salt.

Protest From the Mountains.

These people who go about over the largest cities and towns asking for contributions for the purpose of helping the people in the mountains, ought to be arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses and sent to the penitentiary, where they belong, for the people in the mountains never receive one cent of such contributions. They do not ask for it. We live in the wealthiest part of the State; where every man who wants a job gets one, and where there is no such thing as people starving for food and suffering for clothing. Why don't they let the mountain people have a rest.—Barbourville Advocate.

Kissing is Healthy.

From time immemorial doctors and other have said that kissing was dangerous. It has been said again and again that microbes pass from mouth to mouth when kissing and disease spread.

Engaged couples, however, may take heart from the recent statement of Dr. Pashkow, an eminent physician, of Breslau, who denies absolutely that kissing is dangerous to health. "On the contrary," he says, "far from being harmful, kissing soothes the nerves and has beneficial effects."

A few years ago another medical authority came forward with the theory that kissing is a cure for indigestion. His idea was that our mouths contained beneficial microbes that are enemies of dyspepsia, and that one of the surest ways of getting rid of that nasty "after-dinner feeling" is to resort to the pleasant pastime of osculation.

A couple of years since there was a vigorous campaign against kissing, but the health authorities very quickly decided to discountenance the movement. They asserted that it was nonsense to say that kissing was bad for health; and Dr. Wiley, the chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, stated that "it was essential in the interests of natural happiness that the zeal of the 'germophobes' who are agitating for the abolition of one of the most delightful Christmas customs (kissing under the mistletoe) shall be curbed."

We would be pleased to send the Daily State Journal, Frankfort, from now until the first of April for 50 cents. Or better still we will furnish the Adair County News, one year and the Daily State Journal until April last for $1.25. Columbia Stock Farm

The above picture is a natural photograph of JUDAS the famous Purcheron Stallion. He will make the season of 1914, at my barn, one and one-half miles east of Columbia, on the Somerset road, for the sum of $10 00 to insure a living colt.

DESCRIPTION: Judas is a 6 year old purcheron, a steel gray, weighs 1700 pounds and is 16½ hands high. He is a perfect model and a world beater. Remember that the Auto and such like modes of conveyance have lessened the demand for saddle and harness horses. But remember that they have nothing to do with the Farm and Draft horse. Remember that every farming country in the world wants the Purcheron horse. The leading mule producing States are raising mules from the Purcheron mares. See this horse before you breed, I will gladly show you his certificate of registration and Pedigree. Judas has proven himself to be a great breeder. His foals of 1913 are the best 1 year old colts ever seen in this country and his foals of 1914 are second to none. He is kind and well disposed.

Money due when colt is foaled or mare traded or removed from neighborhood.

All care will be taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.
